Supporting Evidence: Jessica Miller is in violation of her conditions of supervised release by failing to report for a scheduled chemical dependency assessment on March 7, 2016.

On March 1, 2016, the defendant reported she was scheduled for a chemical dependency assessment on March 7, 2016, which would assist her in entering an inpatient treatment program at Sundown M. Ranch. The defendant then contacted First Step Community Counseling and the counselor agreed to an earlier assessment for March 4, 2016.

On March 4, 2016, the defendant called and advised First Step that she was too tired to come to the assessment. It was agreed she would report on March 7, 2016, as initially agreed.

On March 7, 2016, the defendant called and stated she would be late. The defendant failed to report for the assessment.

The defendant has verbally admitted to using heroin on a weekly basis. This was the driving factor in accomplishing the assessment as soon as possible.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
